

I'm Fallin'

(Henry Hipkens)

I was in love so completely
When I got cut to the bone
If that's the way love's gonna treat me
I vowed to go it alone
Now I walk the high wire
My eyes straight ahead
My arms stretchin' out from my sides
Walkin' where no one can reach me
Keepin' a lock on my heart
Watchin' my balance with every stride

But you broke my concentration
Did it so effortlessly
A smile, a brief conversation
A confidence whispered to me
Now I hear the wind blowin'
I feel the rope sway
Every time I look into your eyes
You've got me lurching and leaning
Straining with all of my might
But it just takes a kiss and I give up the fight

I'm fallin'
I'm fallin'
Though I swore I would never what good does it do to pretend
Yes I'm falling in love again
Yes I'm falling in love - I hear the wind blowin'
I feel the rope sway
Every time I look into your eyes
Without the sound of a trumpet
You brought the boy tumblin' down
Yes I am fallin' in love again
